

To Whom It May Concern,

The Indiana Telephone Privacy Law has worked wonderfully in eliminating unwanted soliciting type phone calls. The Consumer Bankers Association has chosen to challenge this law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission. Please do not allow this law to be weakened or changed, as it is enjoyed by a vast majority of Indiana's residents. Your help in this matter will be very much appreciated!

James L. Noffze